

The service XMRadio offers is not at all like the traffic reports that local radio stations provide, they offer instant access to the latest traffic where the local radio stations at best offer 2-4 reports an hour, if they stop this whats next stopping the "Tune into a certain radio station for the latest traffic conditions" that you see along side the freeways in Southern California?